Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 19, 1918.

SCHOOL ITEMS

From the American Annals of the Deaf for September.

ALABAMA SCHOOL.—Mr. J. M. Robertson has resigned and is succeeded by Mr. John McCandless, transferred from the Negro School. Miss Jess Brown has resigned to be married to Mr. J. E. Stone, of Jacksonville, Alabama, and is succeeded by Miss Ruth L. Sims, from the North Dakota School. Miss Marie N. Cormack has resigned to take up Red Cross work and is succeeded by Miss Mary L. Gordon, who returns to the School after a year's rest.

AMERICAN SCHOOL.—Mr. O. L. McIntire has resigned to teach in the Arkansas School and Miss Edyth M. Prevost to be married. Miss Mary Grey Barron and Miss Eva Dunbar, both from the Virginia School, have been added to the corps of teachers.

CALIFORNIA SCHOOL.—Mrs. Helen Ingles succeeds Miss Dorothy C. Houghton as teacher of a primary oral class. Miss Alice K. Metcalf is appointed head teacher of the Oral Department.

CENTRAL INSTITUTE.—Miss Ethel M. Hilliard, Principal of the Central Institute at St. Louis, has been granted a year's leave of absence. During this period Miss Julia M. Connerly, from the Nebraska School, will be Acting Principal.

CENTRAL NEW YORK INSTITUTION.—Miss Ruth Gould has resigned to live at her home in Scranton, Pennsylvania.

During the past summer the eight buildings constituting the plant were painted, the plumbing was overhauled, a ward for contagious diseases was provided in the hospital, and considerable general repairs were made from a special appropriation granted by the state for that purpose.

CLARK SCHOOL.—Dr. Franklin Carter, who had been President of the Board of Trustees for twenty-one years, resigned last year and was succeeded by Dr. Alexander Graham Bell.

The Fiftieth Annual Report gives the proceedings in full of the celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Founding of the School, by the alumni in June, 1917, and the more formal celebration of the Anniversary by the officers and friends of the School in October of the same year. On the latter occasion there were addresses by Dr. Franklin Carter, Dr. Caroline A. Yale, Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, Miss Sarah Fuller, and Mr. Edmund Lyon. It was a matter of deep regret that Miss Harriet B. Rogers, the first Principal of the School, was unable to be present. Later in the day there was a beautiful pageant representing the history of the education of the deaf. Like the pageant on the hundredth anniversary of the American School in July of the same year, it was presented under the direction of Miss Hallie Florence Gelbart, of Hartford, and it followed the same general plan; but more prominence was given to the importance of speech in the education of the deaf and to the history of the Clarke School.

FLORIDA SCHOOL.—Miss Nell Jane Porth has resigned to teach in Wisconsin, Miss Zella Miller to be married, Miss Ellen B. Cobb on account of her health, and Miss Edith B. Nelson to teach in the Kendall School; Mrs. G. C. Hopkins has retired from the work. They are succeeded by Miss Annie B. Cobb and Miss Mary New, both from the North Carolina School at Morganton; Miss Margaret A. Davis, from the Indiana School; Miss Marie Pearson, from the Tennessee School; and Miss Mabel I. Pearson, a recent graduate of Gallaudet College.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE.—Miss Elizabeth Peet has received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in course from George Washington University. She has resigned her position as teacher in charge of college women and is appointed Professor of Latin. Miss Charlotte E. Weiss now has charge of the young women in addition to her duties as instructor in drawing and applied art. Miss Helen Northrop, while still acting as librarian and instructor in mathematics, resumes the work of teaching gymnastics to the young women. Mr. Irving S. Fufeld has been granted leave of absence to enter the army. At present he is engaged as instructor in the academic division of the Curative Work Shop at the Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C., but it is expected that later he will be assigned to the rehabilitation work for deafened soldiers. His absence is a loss to the Annals as well as to the College, for during the past year he has rendered efficient service as assistant editor. For more than a year President Hall and for a shorter period Professor Ely, in addition to their college duties, have been serving the country as members of the Draft Exemption Board of the District of Columbia.

President Hall announced on Presentation Day that the alumni of the College had already given in cash and pledges approximately seven thousand dollars towards the erection of the Edward Miner Gallaudet Memorial Hall. He also read the following paragraphs from a letter recently received from Mrs. Amos G. Draper:

We are anxious to have some memorial to Dr. Draper that will at the same time be of benefit to the Institution where he worked so long and in whose welfare he was so greatly interested.

Knowing how greatly he appreciated the action of the Board of Directors when he sent in his resignation two years ago, it seemed to us that something of that nature would be the best way to expend the memorial. I am therefore empowered to notify you that we have decided to set aside Ten Thousand Dollars as a trust fund to be kept intact, and the interest to be expended by the Board of Directors for the benefit of one or more members of the Faculty as it becomes necessary for such to retire.

We hope that this may be the incentive to others to make similar bequests of greater or smaller amounts; and that the day is not far distant when the Institution will have an endowment of at least half a million upon which to draw for its advancement.

As President Hall said in making this announcement: "The gift of this fund is most inspiring. As Dr. Draper's whole life and interest were given to our College and its students, his family in making this bequest will keep forever in the minds of the newer generations the love and affection which he always held for Gallaudet College."

On Presentation Day the honorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon Rev. John H. Keiser, a deaf clergyman who is doing excellent work among the deaf in New York City, and at the close of the term the following degrees in course were conferred: Master of Arts: Frederick Antonio Moore, B. A., and Tom Lewis Anderson, B. A.; Bachelor of Arts: Guilbert Campbell Braddock, Dorothy Marie Conover, Ethel Harold, Florence Eunice Harper, Mary Ellen Loveall, Ethel Monica McAvoy, Regina Mary Olsen, Mabel Irene Pearson, Benjamin Marshall Schowe, Ada Ruth Studt, Sara Alanson Tredwell, Effie Anna Wesen, Kenneth Gordon Willman, and Caroline Dorothea Wolf; Bachelor of Science: Wallace Knowles Gibson and William Ulen Lynch; Bachelor of Philosophy: Henry Stephen Austin. Teachers' certificates were given to Helen Bailey, Dorothy Long, and Miriam Michaels, normal students.

HOUSTON DAY SCHOOL.—Miss Clara Louise Gordon has resigned the principalship of the Houston (Texas) Day-School to be married to Judge Alfred W. Agee, of Ogden, Utah. Her successor is Miss Bertha Elder, from the Texas School.

ILLINOIS SCHOOL.—Mr. Charles P. Gillett, who has been at the head of the School for more than fifteen years, has been compelled to give up his work, at least temporarily, on account of his health. The Department of Public Welfare declined to accept his resignation but granted him a year's leave of absence. We sincerely hope that this period of rest will enable him to return to the work with health entirely restored. Mr. H. T. White, for three years head of the schools at the Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Normal, Illinois, has been appointed managing officer. Miss Mary J. Sheridan, after thirty-eight years of valuable service as a teacher in this School, has retired.

INDIANA SCHOOL.—At the urgent request of the United States War Department, it has been decided by the Board of Trustees and the Superintendent of the Indiana School to place the School with its buildings, grounds, and facilities at the disposal of the Government for the ensuing year, for the purpose of training vocational soldiers for speedy over-sea service.

INSTITUTION FOR IMPROVED INSTRUCTION, NEW YORK.—Miss Ethelwynne Frick has been granted leave of absence for a year to engage in canteen work in France under the auspices of the young Men's Christian Association. Mrs. Eliza M. Woddrop also has a year's leave of absence. Miss Florence M. Putnam has resigned to teach in the Michigan School. Miss Marion L. Murray, from the Mystic Oral School, Mrs. Ruth Taylor Syres, of Gooding, Idaho, formerly a teacher in the Montana School, Miss Nell E. Wangler, from the Pennsylvania Institution, and Miss Florence Wangler, trained at the Clarke School, have been appointed teachers in the Literary Department. Miss Ida S. Lavine succeeds Miss Florence M. Hess as instructor in cooking; Miss Hess now gives her entire time to her duties as matron.

Last summer the Institution served in the capacity of Unit No. 12 of the War Camp Community Service. During this time it entertained from 100 to 200 soldiers and sailors every Saturday and Sunday night, furnishing them with beds and breakfast, also with cigarettes and other luxuries.

IOWA SCHOOL.—Miss Francina Oursler has resigned to do Government work; Miss Winifred K. Buckwalter to teach in a school nearer her home in Pennsylvania, and Miss Delia D. Yeager to enter a railroad position.

KENDALL SCHOOL.—Mr. Lyman Steed, M. A., Principal for the past nine years, has resigned to become Principal of the Advanced Department of the Pennsylvania Institution, and Miss Elizabeth B. Thompson to teach in the Nebraska School. Mr. Arthur L. Roberts, M. A., a teacher in the Kansas School for the past ten years, is appointed Principal, and Miss Edith Mabel Nelson, M. A., from the Florida School, and Miss Margaret E. Compton, from the Colorado School, are added to the corps of teachers. Miss Musa Marbut, M. A., is appointed supervising teacher of oral work.

KENTUCKY SCHOOL.—Mr. George T. Schofield, after fifty-two years of faithful service in this School, has resigned to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Robert Wallace, in Memphis, Tennessee.

Mr. William J. Blount, who had been teaching in the Colored Department for thirty-two years, died July 25, 1918. "Mr. Blount was a quiet man, but an efficient teacher and greatly beloved by his pupils."

LOUISIANA SCHOOL.—Miss Elizabeth K. Rhodes, Miss Elizabeth Green, and Miss Willie Belle Curtis, from the Mississippi Institute, and Miss Walker C. Rogers, trained at the Michigan School, have been added to the corps of teachers. Miss Margaret Huck, a graduate of Sophie Newcomb College, has charge of "arts and crafts."

MANITOBA SCHOOL.—Mr. Joseph R. Cook, a valued teacher in the Manitoba School for the past twenty-one years, died last summer at the age of forty-eight. He was a man of scholarly disposition and high character, a faithful and successful teacher. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Anna S. Cook, a teacher in the Manitoba School.

MARYLAND (FREDERICK) SCHOOL.—Mr. Thomas C. Forrester has resigned to become Principal of the Western New York Institution. He is succeeded by Mr. Ignatius T. Bjorlee, M. A., from the New York Institution.

MARYLAND (OVERLEA) SCHOOL.—Mr. Henry John Stegemerten, B. A., a graduate of Gallaudet, has been appointed Resident Principal.

MICHIGAN SCHOOL.—Miss Margaret McCall, Miss Margaret Chisholm, and Miss Ella E. J. Crawford have resigned. Miss Crawford has taught for twenty-seven years and now takes advantage of the new state pension law. New teachers are Miss Florence M. Putnam, from the Institution for Improved Instruction, New York; Miss Clara M. Russell, trained at the Pennsylvania Institution; and Miss Florence Loar and Mrs. Ella B. Wood, trained at the Central Institute, St. Louis.

MISSISSIPPI INSTITUTE.—Mr. Wirt A. Scott, M. A., Principal of the Oklahoma School, has been appointed Superintendent. Mr. Scott was trained as a teacher of the deaf at Gallaudet College and has been actively engaged in the work for twenty-six years. Mr. Shelby W. Harris has resigned his position as head teacher to seek health in out-of-door life. Miss Elizabeth K. Rhodes, Miss Elizabeth Green, and Miss Willie Belle Curtis have resigned to teach in the Louisiana School. Miss Alice Nicholson, B. A., a former teacher in the Institute, has returned to the work. Miss Merle Hamilton and Miss Merle Gayden have been added to the staff.

MISSOURI SCHOOL.—Mr. William Crooks McClure has been granted leave of absence to enter the United States Navy. His wife, Mrs. Mary McCue McClure, has been appointed a teacher.

NANTES INSTITUTION.—Mr. Constantin, Director of the Institution de la Persagotiere at Nantes, France, has retired on account of infirmities and is succeeded by Mr. A. Lemesle, Director of the Poitiers Institution and Editor of Echo de Famille.

NEBRASKA SCHOOL.—Miss Julia M. Connerly has resigned to take charge for a year of the Central Institute, at St. Louis; Miss Mae B. McKinley to be married; Mrs. Julia E. Coburn and Miss Anna McCortle Heinfelt to retire from the work; Miss Pearl Ridgway and Miss Sarah E. Lewis to teach in the North Carolina School at Morganton; and Miss Emily J. Asbury to spend a year at home. New teachers are Miss Mary E. McKinney, from the Georgia School; Miss Lettie McKinney, from the North Carolina Training Class; Miss Edna Haaser, from the South Dakota School; Miss Florence B. Spruit, from the Illinois School; Miss Elizabeth B. Thompson, from the Kendall School; Miss Dorothy Long, from the Gallaudet College Normal Class; Miss Dorothy Dodge, from the Central Institute Normal Class; and Miss Edith M. Miles, trained at the Nebraska School.

NEW JERSEY SCHOOL.—Mrs. Carlotta Adele Anderson, B. S., has been appointed Supervising Oral Principal. Miss Anita M. Lee and Miss Virginia Rogers, both trained at the Indiana School; Miss Helen Kirk, from the Northern New York Institution; Miss Claudia Forman, from the Mystic Oral School; Miss Phoebe E. Oehler; Mr. J. Johnson, instructor in woodworking and mechanical drawing; and Miss Ada R. Studt, B. A., a recent graduate of Gallaudet, physical-training instructor for girls, have been added to the corps of teachers.

The floor space of the printing office has been enlarged 135 per cent and that of the woodworking and mechanical drawing department in the same proportion. Valuable additions have been made to the printing and photo-engraving department, including a number-nine Mergenthaler linotype. The present equipment in these departments is probably better than that of any other public school in the country and is surpassed only by the large technical schools.

Arrangements have been made with the State Normal School in Trenton, by which it is hoped a supply of trained teachers of the deaf will be secured.

A bronze tablet of Weston Jenkins, the first Superintendent of the School, by Elmer Hannan, a deaf sculptor of Washington, D. C., the gift of former pupils and friends, was unveiled with appropriate ceremonies at a meeting of the Alumni Association last summer.

NEW YORK INSTITUTION.—Mr. Edmiston W. Iles, M. A., instructor of the blind-deaf, has been released to enter the service of the Government. Miss Ethel Hammond, from the Kansas School, takes charge of this class during the coming year. Mr. Ignatius T. Bjorlee has resigned to become Principal of the Maryland School; Miss Elizabeth T. Green has retired on a state pension; Miss Wilhelmine H. Peper, instructor in art, has resigned to be married; and Miss Mary E. Davis, instructor in domestic science, has retired from active teaching.

The Hundredth Anniversary of the establishment of the Institution was celebrated May 21, 1918. Addresses were made by Mr. Thatcher M. Adams, President of the Board of Directors; Mr. Isaac B. Gardner, Principal of the Institution; Mr. Albert A. Barnes, the oldest living graduate; and Major-General Francis Vinton Green, a member of the Board of Directors. A full account of the proceedings was published in the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL of June 20, 1918.

NORTH CAROLINA (MORGANTON) SCHOOL.—Miss Enfield Joiner, Educational Principal, has resigned to become principal of the school for rehabilitation of deafened soldiers, at Cape May; Miss Pattie Thomason, B. L., from the Newark Day-School, takes her place. Miss Belle G. Gibson, Miss Ethel M. McGill, and Miss Hazel Burley have resigned to be married; Miss Josephine Washington to teach in the North Dakota School; Miss Allie Arnold in the Colorado School; Miss Ann M. Gibson in the Pennsylvania Institution; Miss Martha W. McClary in the Western Pennsylvania Institution; Miss Annie Cobb and Miss Mary New in the Florida School; and Miss Addie Kerr in the Virginia School. Their successors are Miss Sara E. Lewis and Miss Pearl Ridgway, from the Nebraska School; Miss L. Adelaide Porter, from the Mystic Oral School; Mrs. Herbert Spencer, of Harriman, Tennessee; Miss Bessie A. Finn and Miss Anna Dorothy Heller, trained at the Institution for Improved Instruction, New York; and Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Miss Louise Morrow, and Miss Lee Griffin, trained at the North Carolina School.

OHIO SCHOOL.—Usually the Ohio School, notwithstanding the large number of its instructors, has but few changes to report; this year it begins the new term with no changes whatever! Miss Berneda Layman has been appointed a normal student.

ONTARIO SCHOOL.—An arrangement has been made with the Canadian Invalided Soldiers' Commission, by which soldiers deafened in the war are to be taught lip-reading at this School.

OREGON SCHOOL.—An excellent periodical containing exercises for use in the several classes is published by the School. It is entitled the Class Helper, the General Editor is Miss Minnie E. Morris.

PENNSYLVANIA INSTITUTION.—Acceptances of the cordial invitation extended by the Board of Directors to attend and take part in the exercises commemorative of the Hundredth Anniversary of the Founding of the Pennsylvania Institution, to be held during the summer of 1920, have been received from the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf, the American Association to promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf, and the National Association of the Deaf.

The war has made serious demands upon the teaching staff. Mr. Clarence J. Settles, Mr. Orvis De Witt Dantzer, Mr. Edward J. Hine, and Mr. Willard E. Pallman have resigned to enter the army; Mr. Arthur Clarence Manning, Principal of the Advanced Department, Miss Margaret Bodycomb, and Miss Clara Louise Rockwell to devote themselves to the rehabilitation of deafened soldiers; and Miss Gladys V. L. Burr and Miss Nell E. Wangler to engage in other service of the Government.

Appointed to fill their places are Mr. Lyman Steed, from the Kendall School, as Principal of the Advanced Department; Mr. George B. Lloyd, from the Washington State School; Mr. Corbett T. Arnold, Mrs. Harriet B. Smith, and Miss Isabel Bedford, all of Philadelphia; Miss Kate Alcorn, from the Indiana School; Miss Ann M. Gibson, from the North Carolina School at Morganton; and Miss Annetta L. McGrath, of Philadelphia. Mr. Henry G. Breuninger, instructor in shoemaking, Mr. Harry D. Wright, instructor in woodwork, Mr. John E. Krause, instructor in masonry, and Miss Annie Kiscaden, intructress in tailoring, have resigned. Mr. Thomas W. Jones has been appointed instructor in shoemaking and Mr. Henry Friemel instructor in woodwork. The vacancies in masonry and tailoring remain unfilled for the present.

RHODE ISLAND SCHOOL.—Mr. Edwin G. Hurd, who has been Principal since 1906, has gone to California, hoping to establish himself permanently in some out-of-door life and work. Mrs. Anna C. Hurd, Acting Principal since January 1, 1918, has been elected Principal in his place. Mrs. Hurd begun her work as a teacher in the Michigan School thirty-seven years ago; taught in the Pennsylvania Institution nine years and in the North Carolina School, where she built up the oral department, eleven years; and has been Supervising Principal of the Rhode Island School for the past twelve years. Miss Helen M. Allen has resigned to live with her mother and Miss Sadie J. Charles to be married. Miss Julia McNairy, trained by Miss Enfield Joiner at the North Carolina School, has been appointed a teacher.

A new building providing residences for the principal and the teachers and thus giving accommodations in the main building for an increased number of pupils, has been erected. All salaries of teachers, officers, and employees, have been increased to meet in a measure the higher cost of living.

SOUTH DAKOTA SCHOOL.—Miss Nancy Buchanan has resigned to teach in the Virginia School, Miss Helen Schroeder to teach in the New Mexico School, Miss Edna Haaser to teach in the Nebraska School, and Miss Flossie A. Hoisington to be married. Mr. Lawrence McKeefry, instructor in carpentry and sloyd, is replaced by Mr. Martin Nesheim. Other new teachers are Miss Zella A. Harner, from the West Virginia School, and Miss Pauline Schmidt.

Rev. Dr. Thomas B. Berry, first Principal of the School, in the establishment of which he took an active part when he was rector of an Episcopal church in Sioux Falls in 1880, died at his residence in Geneva, New York, May 12, 1918.

Dr. Berry was born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1846, and while still in his teens taught for a time in a school for the deaf of which an older brother was principal. At the age of twenty he came to America and became a teacher in the New York Institution. He afterwards taught in the Maryland School. In 1873 he entered the ministry of the Episcopal church and later, while serving as a curate at Albany, engaged in missionary work among the deaf in Western New York. He was rector of a church in Buffalo for nearly twenty-one years and from 1909 until his death was Warden of the DeLancey Divinity School at Geneva. He received the honorary degrees of M. A. and S. S. D. from Hobart College. One of his daughters, Miss Amelia E. Berry, is a teacher in the New York Institution.

TENNESSEE SCHOOL.—Miss Marie Pearson has resigned to teach in the Florida School and Miss Frances L. Wallace, of Jacksonville, Illinois, has been appointed a teacher.

TEXAS SCHOOL.—Mr. William M. Thornberry, a veteran teacher, died April 20, 1918, of grip, after a brief illness. He had been connected with the School as Pupil, monitor, and teacher for forty-nine consecutive years. In 1869 he was married to Miss Mary L. Jones, who, with a young son, Homer, survives him.

VIRGINIA SCHOOL.—Miss Mary Grey Barron and Eva Dunbar have resigned to teach in the American School at Hartford; Miss Margaret Daniels and Bessie Garrett, teacher of sewing, have retired from the work. Their successors are Miss Nancy Buchanan, from the South Dakota School; Miss Marian Pumphrey, from the Alabama School; Miss Addie H. Kerr, from the North Carolina School; and Mrs. Lottie Parker Jones, a graduate of the Virginia School.

WASHINGTON STATE SCHOOL.—Mr. George B. Lloyd has resigned to teach in the Pennsylvania Institution, Miss Lydia Elmore to be married, and Miss Emily E. Sauter to take up other work. Their successors are Mr. T. F. Mosely, formerly a teacher in the Illinois, Arkansas, and Nebraska Schools; Miss Alice M. Alcorn, from the Georgia Schools; and Miss Margaret Chisholm, from the Michigan School.

The new school building is making rapid headway and, while it will hardly be completed in time for the opening of school, it is hoped that it may be occupied at an early date in the coming winter, possibly before winter.

WEST VIRGINIA SCHOOL.—Mrs. A. R. Casey, Miss Lorena Burns and Miss Hilda Heischman have resigned, the two last-named to be married, and Miss Zella A. Harner has resigned to teach in the Nebraska School. They are succeeded by Miss Rebecca B. Smith, from the North Dakota School; Miss Winifred Buckwalter, from the Iowa School; and Miss Martha E. Melchior, of Newark, New Jersey.

WESTERN NEW YORK INSTITUTION.—Mr. Thomas Carlaw Forrester, who was trained as a teacher of the deaf by Dr. W. H. Addison, at the Glasgow (Scotland) Institution, and has taught in the Glasgow, Belfast, Ontario, and Montana Schools, and been Resident Principal of the Maryland School at Overlea and Principal of the Maryland School at Frederick, has been appointed Principal of the Western New York Institution in the place of the late Dr. Z. F. Westervelt.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA INSTITUTION.—The vacancy occasioned by the retirement of Miss Susie E. Danver, whose resignation was mentioned in the March number of the Annals, has been filled by the return of Miss Martha W. McClary, who taught last year in the North Carolina School at Morganton. Mr. James G. Harman, foreman of the carpenter shop for the past seven years, has responded to a call for ship-builders and is now in the employment of the Government.

ANTI-ZENOISMS AND PLATOISMS.

Shawyn's annual summer vacation is over. He didn't come across his old friends Zenos and Schwarzlose at the Frat Convention in Philadelphia. However, their absence did not mar the occasion.

According to the latest census of the deaf population at Akron, the town is due for a deaf-mute mayor in 1920. Shawyn nominates Jimmy Meagher. Who will second the nomination?

Zeno told the truth recently when he said if he did not make a noise like the propeller of an airplane, the N. A. D. would drop to earth. That's just as it always has been; when Zeno is making a noise with his ZEROISMS, the N. A. D. takes a balloon ascension, like baseball teams sometimes do, and the opposition pushes half a dozen runs across the plate. When Zeno and his balderdash cease, the N. A. D. recovers its senses and "drops" to its feet on good old terra firma again.

A. L. Roberts, better known as "Bobs," was signally honored by being asked to assume the duties as Principal of the Kendall School in Washington, D. C. To "Bobs" Shawyn extends his heartiest congratulations, and to the Kendall School, Shawyn sends his unadulterated sympathy. The Jayhawker school has since been jogging along like a regiment of soldiers minus its colonel.

If it had not been for the fact that Zeno's home is out on the Pacific Coast, Los Angeles, in all probability, would have been selected as the next meeting place of the N. F. S. D. As it was, the N. F. S. D. turned Los Angeles down in favor of Atlanta. Only loose straws point the way the wind is blowing, and since the members of the N. F. S. D. are not loose straws, Los Angeles owes her defeat to the facts that Zeno lives too close to her, and Atlanta owes her victory to the fact that Zeno lives so far away.

A gentle tip to H. O. Schwarzlose: Why not add Zeno to your list of pests?

Zeno seems to be suffering from an acute attack of egotism, supplemented with a bit of camouflage. Trying to convince the deaf world that Tilden is the leading deaf-mute, is merely trying to boost Zeno himself under his true name.

It's dollars to doughnuts that Zeno isn't a Frat. If he was, he would have more common sense.

Shawyn supposes it is still proper to refer to conductorettes as the fare sex.

If they collect all the useless corkscrews and beer openers they will have enough metal to keep the war going for a year or two.

Zeno was once heard to be complaining about one beardless day a week, but now we hear he is enjoying seven.

One thing about Georgette crepe and a camasole; a girl in a strange bank can identify herself by the mole on her shoulder.

Deaf-Mutes' Journal

NEW YORK, OCTOBER 17, 1918.

EDWIN A. HODGSON, Editor.

THE DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL (published by the New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb, at W. 163d Street and Ft. Washington Avenue) is issued every Thursday; it is the best paper for deaf-mutes published; it contains the latest news and correspondence; the best writers contribute to it.

TERMS.

One Copy, one year, $1.00
To Canada and Foreign Countries, - 1.50

CONTRIBUTIONS.

All contributions must be accompanied with the name and address of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Correspondents are alone responsible for views and opinions expressed in their communications.

Contributions, subscriptions and business letters to be sent to the
DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL,
Station M, New York.

He's true to God who's true to man:
Wherever wrong is done
To the humblest and the weakest
'Neath the all-beholding sun,
That wrong is also done to us,
And they are slaves most base,
Whose love of right is for themselves,
And not for all the race.

Specimen copies sent to any address on receipt of five cents.

Notices concerning the whereabouts of individuals will be charged for at the rate of ten cents a line.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

In the conservation of commodities, the United States has put print and other paper on the list of essentials.

No one is allowed to waste paper, and the supply is being limited to printing establishments.

One of the measures taken by the Government is an order to newspapers, magazines and other periodicals, to stop promptly all papers when subscriptions expire. The DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL has always been willing to wait awhile for tardy subscribers. But the United States Government has ordered that we do it no longer. We, have no option but to obey the law.

Therefore it will be our watchful endeavor to stop subscriptions as soon as they expire. No notice will be given. Each subscriber must keep in mind when his or her subscription expires. If the paper is stopped, the reason why is clear—the term has expired.

No free copies will hereafter be sent, except to exchanges and correspondents, and to those whose services entitle them to it.

We are sorry that many poor deaf people will not receive the JOURNAL unless they send in their subscriptions, but Uncle Sam says it must not be done, and what Uncle Sam says is final.

Send in your subscriptions now—if you want the JOURNAL—and avoid the trouble of missing your paper and making complaints.

J. R. COOK.

The following is taken from the Winnipeg, Man., Bulletin, of August 16th, 1918:—

J. R. Cook, for a period of twenty-five years teacher and instructor in printing at the provincial deaf and dumb institute, and among the best-known and most popular deaf-mutes in Winnipeg, died yesterday at his home, 65 Niagara Street, River Heights, of typhoid fever.

Mr. Cook was possessed of a fine type of character, and his kindly disposition will long be remembered by many in the city and throughout the west, more especially those who came under his influence as pupils of the institute. Mrs. Cook, who is also a teacher at the institute, survives.

The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock, from the family residence to Elmwood cemetery.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE.

The influenza continues to be in vogue at Gallaudet. "Have you had it yet?" is the invariable greeting. Dr. Hall is the most recent victim of the malady. There were on Saturday, October 12th, eleven cases among the students, ten in College Hall and one in Sophia Fowler Hall. Nearly half the cases on the boys' side are relapses. To care for them the row of rooms just across the hall from the office suite has been converted into a hospital, and a nurse has been secured. A very good looking nurse too. Hetzler, '19, was almost rid of influenza prior to the nurse's advent. Just as soon as he was removed downstairs under her care, he suffered a very suspicious relapse, called for his kodak album (let us suppose that he was already very familiar with its contents) and settled down for what will apparently be the longest case on record here. We are afraid that the influenza will be much more "catching" now than before.

The disease has taken its first toll in life from the College. James Tamisea, from Nebraska, a member of the Preparatory Class, contracted influenza when enroute to Gallaudet. Arriving here he was at once laid up. In a few days he became better, then suffered a relapse which developed into pneumonia. When it was seen that pneumonia had set in, everything possible was done. The patient was isolated, a special nurse was obtained and constant medical attention was had. But to no avail. On Sunday morning, October 6th, Tamisea passed away. He had succeeded only after the third trial in being admitted to the Preparatory Class, and his death, coming just when he had reached the goal of his endeavors, is made more sad.

It was hoped that class-room work could be resumed Monday, October 7th. Dr. Donnally had the situation well in hand, but deemed it wisest that no recitations be held for at least another week. Acting president, Dr. Fay, has announced that the class-room work will be resumed on the 14th, but Chapel exercises, etc., will not be continued for awhile longer. Everyone has become weary of the enforced inactivity, for since most of the work on the ground and farm has been done, there is little left to do—except in the laundry. There the spread of influenza has materially helped the cause of feminism. The laundry women have almost all been affected, and Mrs. Troup is temporarily employing some half dozen of the college boys at the tubs and wringers. Bravo boys! The eyes of Fowler Hall are upon you.

A new feature in the dining rooms this year is the sugar ration. When College first opened each student was given a little paste-board box containing a week's allowance of sugar. Every Thursday afternoon the Dining Room Committee distributes a fresh supply. Those students who believe in human nature leave their boxes on the tables between meals; the cynics carry theirs to and from the dining room.

The weather-map board in the Reading Room, neglected since pre-Braddockian days, has come into a measure of usefulness again. Valiant, '20, and Cohen, P. C., our pen and ink artists, have seized upon it as a forum for their cartoons. The foibles of the student body and the humorous incidents that occur at the College are mirrored therein daily.

The Juniors are growing a new crop of moustaches. Haley and Stevens are the only ones remaining with clean-shaven faces.

Funk, P. C., is the first Rat known in our time to fall prey to the upper-classmen's enthusiastic descriptions of the Howard Theatre, and in his gullibility, pay a visit thereto. One day, last week, he cut short an afternoon among the glories of the Congressional Library and hastened, with a fellow Prep, to see the attractions at the Howard. They lost the way, and Funk stopped to inquire. He wondered why every one looked at him so strangely when he asked for guidance. Finally the goal was near; the precious pair hastened forward to get their tickets, and noticed a long line of ladies and gentlemen of color before the ticket-window. Needless to say, their plans for seeing the performance were instantly abandoned.

ATHLETICS

Football, along with all other activities, has been at a standstill for the past two weeks. It was only within the last few days that practice was possible. Practically every member of the team has at one time or another been a victim of influenza. In one of its inexplicable whims the disease has taken a firm grip on those carefully trained athletes who, one would suppose, would be the last to be affected, while the athletic nonentities, who consider gym exercise one of the greatest of College evils, have gone soft free.

The few light work-outs which the team has had consisted mainly of tackling the "dummy" and signal drill, but the squad was for the greater part made up of new candidates whose chief quality is toughness. In fact, qualitatively speaking, the team has almost no line, for nearly every position from end to end was filled in by a new and inexperienced man, who will have to be taught the very rudiments of the game. Osborne, Burns, Dohrman, and Paxton, who are expected to form the bulwark of the line defense have not yet recovered from the after effect of the "flu." The only experienced player was Razboril, who was at center.

Bouchard and LaFontaine held down the end positions. The latter is one of the new men who is looked upon to make the team. Another of the new finds is Downes, a tall, rangy fellow, weighing 160 pounds. He is fast, aggressive and a good kicker. He can get distance to his kicks, but is not yet a finished product being erratic at times. Lahn, the latest addition to the squad, is another good player.

As in former years, Gallaudet was once more confronted with the problem of a coach. Last year, under Moore, '15, the team began to round into a formidable combination, but as stated in last week's issue, Moore has left. With this danger in mind, the Advisory Board decided to select one who was not liable to introduce a radical change as has been the wont of former coaches. As a result the choice fell upon Ted Hughes, '13. Hughes may not have been a great player, but he knows the game, having played it during his College days. At least he can not do any worse than a stranger unfamiliar with our signs and system.

The first game was postponed till Nov. 2d, as neither team was in condition to play. Next Saturday's game with Mt. St. Mary's may have to be cancelled. Coach Hughes may decide to go through with it but if he does, he will not be able to put his full strength on the field. The schedule which we hope to follow is:

Oct. 19—Mt. St. Marys, at Emmittsburg, Md.
Oct. 26—Bucknell, at Lewisburg, Pa.
Nov. 2—St. Johns, at location undecided.
Nov. 9—Fort Meyer, at home.
Nov. 16—Penn. Military College, at Chester, Pa.

CHICAGO.

News items for this column should be sent to Jesse A. Waldman, 344 848 Unity Building, Chicago, Ill.

In response to invitations, a large crowd gathered in the club rooms of the Silent Athletic Club, Saturday evening, October 5th. The paramount reason was the club's eighth anniversary of prosperous existence. Judging by the overflow of sparkling speeches by enthusiastic leaders, coupled by other special features appropriate for the occasion, the members had ample reason to take an immense pride in their club. It is said that the club has the largest membership roll of any similar organization in the country. It is centrally located at 32 N. Wells Street, over King's restaurant.

At the Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday, Rev. P. J. Hasenstab announced to his congregation his re-appointment as pastor of the Methodist Mission of the Deaf another year. Rev. Henry S. Rutherford was also re-appointed for the ensuing year. For the next three weeks Rev. Hasenstab will have charge of the local pulpit, while Mrs. Hasenstab and Rev. Rutherford will fulfill appointments in cities in Northern Indiana and Illinois.

Emery Horn has been obliged to forego his regular work at Rogers & Hall, Printers, for a few days, because of a severe attack of the grip.

Harry Brimble, a former Chicagoan, notified his friends that he has forsaken farm work in Utica, Ill., where he had been located for the past three years, and started for California, September 24th, to reside with his mother and sister. It is said that he cast a farewell look at old Chicago enroute West.

Leroy Henderson, who recently became a Benedict, explained his failure to show up at his regular haunts. He blamed it on la grippe, with which he had a mighty struggle for over three weeks. He's just recovering from its after effects.

Master Howard Francis Novotny, who came into this world of turmoil on July 31st, 1918, was baptized by Rev. Fr. James P. Cannell, in St. Marks Catholic Church, on September 22. The sponsors were Miss Rose Krzyzanowski and Michael Kerr. The little fellow's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Novotny. Mrs. Novotny was Miss Helen Fremont, a product of the Indiana School for the Deaf.

Mrs. George Cartier, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is spending a couple of weeks with her relatives in and near Chicago. Her husband is doing well at his printing trade in the Iowa city.

October 12th—this week—promises to be a gala day at All Angels' Parish House, where for several weeks past, under the able management of Mrs. James Watson, much labor and time were spent. The fact that the proceeds will be used for decreasing the church's debt has spurred the promoters to increased activity. They call it "Jitney Social"—and if I have been correctly informed, it means you will be entitled to pass through the door, enjoy a few bites of their deliciously cooked "eatables" up to and with the magnificent sum of a quarter. If one is tempted to ask for more, of course, an extra nickel or so must be forthcoming. All the folks from the S. A. C., P. A. P., and the local N. F. S. D., will be there. That means good round dollars for "doughty" workers, who will then transfer them to the mortgage fund.

Then on Wednesday, October 16th, behold! the Rev. John Keiser, pastor of St. Ann's Church, New York City, will step forth and show them how the mad Kaiser of Berlin can be whipped to a frazzle. Rev. Keiser knows how to deliver a masterful speech, and everybody who ventures in All Angels' Parish House that evening will be banded a riotous treat.

During all the above excitement at the parish house on those two eventful evenings, Rev. Geo. F. Flick will be keeping himself aloof, pending his full recovery from several weeks' attack of the grip. He thinks it was Spanish "flu."

Edward Rowse, who has roomed with the Flick family for a number of years, is also battling with the same malady—grip.

Leslie Larsen has decided to live with his aged mother on Dover Street, where they have leased an apartment. Heretofore Leslie has been living in bachelor quarters on Sheridan Road, but found the life too monotonous and the privileges too limited. Now, he says, he can invite his particular friends to dinner every once in awhile, and his mother backs him on this plan.

Mrs. Minnie Sullivan has just returned from a week's stay in Milwaukee. While in the city she attended the funeral of Irving Blood, who died on Oct. 1st. He was a former student at the Indiana State School. He learned his trade as moulder from the late Chas. Sullivan.

Mrs. Michael Sullivan was in Chicago bidding her friends goodbye. She says her home in Aurora, Ill., has been sold, and that Mr. Sullivan has packed three trunks,

All—the Sullivans and baggage—will be on the way to San Diego, California, by the time this JOURNAL reaches you.

The school at Delavan, Wis., has undergone another change in superintendents. Prof. Buell, who had charge for only a few months, resigned, and is succeeded by Prof. Cochran, a former instructor at the Michigan School many years ago.

Mrs. F. C. Joseph has a son, Edwin, who is making things miserable for Huns. While in a hospital in England he wrote his mother how he and a comrade captured nine Germans in a dugout. The young fighter told his mother that as soon as he got well he would rush back into the fray and give the Huns some more wallops.

The household of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Morton has been gladdened by the arrival of their only son, who has been in California during the past two years. The boy intends to remain with his parents indefinitely.

Wm. J. Graham hasn't forsaken Chicago, as some of his friends feared. He wrote, saying he is in Manassas, Va., tilling his recently purchased farm, and that he will be back in Chicago before winter gets a firm grip on us.

Mrs. Lottie Conklin passed away last Tuesday, after being ill with pneumonia for only a few days. Her sudden demise cast sorrow among her numerous friends in All Angels' Church, of which she was a member. She leaves to mourn her death a loving husband, Ralph, a little daughter, Mary, a mother, Mrs. Nettie Sprague, and an only deaf brother, George Sprague. Funeral was held at Presbyterian Church, corner 57th and Prairie Avenues, Thursday afternoon. Rev. G. F. Flick was invited to deliver a sermon in signs. A hearing minister also conducted service, interpreted by Mrs. Gustave Hyman. The remains were taken to Coldwater, Mich., for interment, accompanied by the surviving family. Mrs. Conklin was apparently in the best of health only a week before, and took an active part in all the social affairs of All Angels' Church. She was noticed to suffer from a slight cold which was swiftly followed by pneumonia, and none of her friends realized that she would be taken suddenly.

Monday, October 14, has been set aside as annual tag day in Chicago, sponsored by the Children's Benefit League. From the sale of tags on street corners and other public places, forty-three philanthropic organizations maintained to aid children depend for a great portion of their annual support. Included in this list of institutions to be benefited is the Ephphatha School for the Deaf, located at corner of Belmont and Crawford Avenues. Last year's allotment for this school was about $3060.

Samuel Daniels became deaf at the late age of sixty. To banish loneliness he joined the League of the Hard of Hearing and the Pas-a-Pas Club. It was in the latter club that he derived the most enjoyment, by learning the mystery of finger spelling and sign-making. He is to be missed, for he has sent word that he will live with his son in California for the rest of his days. He leaves with the best wishes of all his new acquaintances. After an absence of several years, where she was given charge of a rooming house left by her late mother in Wichita, Kan., Mrs. Champion Buchan has returned to Chicago. She left the house in charge of a sister-in-law. Mr. Buchan is now wearing a broad smile that won't wear off. He has decided to hunt up a cozy bungalow somewhere in Oak Park, Ill., where the two can live comfortably ever after. Mr. Buchan is connected with the Chicago postoffice, and it was for that reason he could not leave his job for another if he wanted to live in Kansas.

Miss Maud Hodges, of Center Valley, Kan., came to Chicago last Sunday enroute to Akron, O., to join the fast-increasing colony of deaf workers for the Goodyear Tire Co. She was met at the station by her old schoolmates, Mrs. Luther Wood, nee Dillon, and Ralph Decker. Mr. Wood was included in the party as chaperon or body-guard. The young lady was shown all the beautiful and interesting sights of the smoky city before train time.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Mr. H. O. Schwarzlose, 2504 Noble Ave., Alameda, Cal., is authorized to receive subscriptions, and news items relating to the deaf, from San Francisco and surrounding cities.

The Los Angeles writer asks to forgive him for stealing two of our young men. There happen to be four of our young fellows in Los Angeles at present. Let me say right here that, from their reports of the place, Los Angeles never could be arrested for pettiness.

The boys went of their own accord, without any inducements, whatever, and up to the time of this writing, N. E. Pike (not Pipe, Mr. Price, but Pike) and his chum, Leslie Ross, have not found any positions, and Willy Tyhurst works as a press feeder for $18 a week.

The San Francisco Press Feeders Union, of which I have the honor to be a member, recently raised their scale to $21 a week. Tyhurst could have bettered himself if he had stayed here. As for Larson, we have not heard from him yet.

The Angel (?) writer asks the reason for San Francisco's slow growth. I'll quote from tonight's Call and Post Wednesday, September 18th, for the benefit of the doubters in Los Angeles:—

"It is a well known fact that San Francisco and vicinity harbor the largest and best shipyards in the United States. ONE of these, Moore Shipbuilding Co., of Oakland, employs 7000 (seven thousand) men. The housing of all these men and those from the other shipyards is a difficult problem for the authorities to handle.

"Houses and hotels have literally sprung up over night. A good part of the men who have come from other states have brought their families along. While working in the yards of San Francisco, Alameda and Oakland, they settle their families in Alameda, Berkeley, Piedmont and Richmond."

This article covers three and a half columns of the newspaper, and gives many statistics which are all cut and dried and for which we have no liking, so we will go no farther, and let it go as it is. Forgive us, Mr. Price, but you rub us the wrong way when you speak slightly of this man's town. But why say 'San Francisco used to be bigger than Los Angeles'?

It is! One other thing, Mr. Price, there were nineteen deaf men at the Ford Auto Co., and not twelve as you reported.

We are sorry to be so contradictory, but the writer from or of Los Angeles made too many mistakes about San Francisco at all.

Price says that the population of Los Angeles is close to seven hundred thousand. The Federal census taken for the recent draft gives Los Angeles 430,000 people and San Francisco 560,000! There happens to be a bit of difference between 430,000 (Federal count) and 700,000 (Price's count). If anyone asked us about it, we'd go by what the Government says.

Perhaps Price did his own counting and stood on the corner of Pumpkin Street and Squash Avenue, and watched the crowds (?) go by. Perhaps he counted some people twice, for fear that he had missed some while lost in thought. Crowds are so confusing, you know.

Naming a tank town "Los Angeles" will not make it a metropolis, nor will the fact that you've named your son Julius Caesar make him a world-beater. Los Angeles seems to grow by annexing all the surrounding towns, while San Francisco has grown, and will continue to do so, by its own worth.

If we haven't enough room in this man's town, we can fill in the Pacific Ocean and broaden out a bit.

The capitalist who said he'd locate permanently in Los Angeles, may have meant what he said, but he forgot to add—'under six feet of earth!'

Seattle may have too much rain, we know nothing about it, and for that very reason, we say nothing, but it certainly isn't too windy here. It is just windy enough to make things interesting for a pedestrian on Market Street! (The war did a good thing by starting this movement, on the part of women, to conserve clothing!) If it wasn't for the 'canned drama' where would Los Angeles be now?

The reputation of San Francisco cannot be kept alive, and in the lime-light by past performances. Yet, why choose San Francisco for the 1915 Exposition and San Diego for the California Exposition, if Los Angeles was or is such a wonder city?

To come down to date—why did the Frats decide to hold the next Convention in Atlanta and give Los Angeles the "merry-na-ha"? And again—why was the 1917 Convention of the C. A. D. held in San Francisco when Los Angeles wanted it so badly?

Once more—why do so many of the Angels come down to San Francisco to live? We could name plenty of them. A recent letter received by the writer from an old classmate says, part:—

"I am soon coming to settle in San Francisco. I have lived in Los Angeles for the past sixteen years, and have become old before my time. I want to see if the City of the Golden Gate can put a little of its "gold" back into my hair, which has become streaked with gray."

All this may be a bit forceful but it is to the point. It is not meant personally, and I hope the writer of Los Angeles Items will continue to write, but only about his own town and not about San Francisco, for we are naturally kind-hearted, good natured and of even temperament, but even a cat will scratch and spit at you, if you rub her the wrong way!

H. O. SCHWARZLOSE.

IOWA.

The Iowa School has established a new course—the Extension Department—which hopes to reach all those deaf pupils who for any reason are unable to return to school. Also those graduates who wish to continue their education. Such extension departments (correspondence courses) are operated by many colleges. Miss Margaret H. Watkins has charge of it. She has had thirty years experience as a teacher of the Deaf, mostly at the Iowa School. She has taught various grades ranging from the Primary up to the Academic and is personally known to those with whom she corresponds, and is therefore particularly well adapted for her new work. She is relieved of her teaching duties this year, tho' she continues to be the Supervising Teacher of the Intermediate Manual Trades.

The only new teachers at this school are Miss Effie Wesen, of Nebraska, one of this year's graduates of Gallaudet College, and Mrs. Augusta K. Barrett. Miss Wesen is a charming and accomplished young lady and Mrs. Barrett is not entirely new to the profession, having been a teacher before her marriage and also has had some experience as a substitute. Mr. Henry Porter is appointed as Boys' Supervisor. He has had a number of years experience in this position in the Nebraska and Kansas schools.

The social season was auspiciously opened by the meeting of the Midway West Chapter, G. C. A. A., on September 29th, at the Iowa School for the Deaf. They were the guests of Supt. Henry W. Rother, who is an honorary member of the chapter.

Supt. Rother announced that he had the refreshments prepared for the party. He had heard by telephone that afternoon of some new rulings by the Food Administration asking people not to eat more than three meals a day and requesting that no refreshments be served at parties. So in compliance with these new regulations, he had decided not to serve any. There was some discussion then of a motion that no refreshments be served at chapter meetings this year, and it was carried. "500" then furnished diversion for the evening, at which first prizes were won by Mrs. N. H. Rother and Mr. H. G. Long, and second prizes by Mrs. O. Treuke and Mr. P. E. Seely.

Messrs. Matt McCook, of Riceville, and Milton Baldrige, of Batavia, were visitors at the Iowa School a few days after its opening, September 11th. Mr. Baldrige brought his deaf son, and Mr. McCook came with a hearing friend, who brought her son to school, and also to inspect the printing business owned by himself and Mr. Axling.

Mr. Kenneth Willman, of Washington State, spent a few days in Council Bluffs and Omaha, on his way to the Tennessee School, where he has been appointed a teacher.

Miss Ruth Atkins, of Kansas, a friend of Miss Wesen's, spent a few days with her while en route to Gallaudet College.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Holloway and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Comp recently had an enjoyable Sunday visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. Heinze. Mrs. J. Schnyer Long is again teaching at the Nebraska School this year.

Mr. Oliver McInturf has been appointed instructor in printing and supervisor at the Oklahoma School.

Ward H. Pound, son of L. W. Pound, is said to be on his way to France now. He has been in the army about a year.

Gas for street lighting was first used in Pall Mall, London, 111 years ago. A few experimental gas lights previously had been used in Golden Lane, but it was not until a few years later that the new form of illumination was generally adopted in London streets. The first attempt to introduce the use of gas in America was in Baltimore in 1816. The project was unsuccessful. In 1822 it was introduced in Boston, and in the following year New York streets were lighted by gas. The system did not prove successful, however, until 1827. The use of gas spread rapidly to other cities in the United States and Canada. Rosin and oil were used for producing gas in America in the early days of the industry. Until half a century ago the price a thousand feet ranged up to $7, the average being about $3.50.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.
A few words of information in a letter, or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

On Saturday evening, October 12th, the Deaf-Mutes' Union League held a Whist Party at its rooms, 143 West 125th Street. There were present one hundred and thirty, but all did not take part in the game.

Cash prizes were awarded, and the winners were as follows:

Ladies—First prize, Miss Connell; second prize, Mrs. Marks; booby prize, Mrs. Pace.

Gentlemen—First prize, Mr. Samuel Greenberg; second prize, Mr. Ebin; booby prize, Mr. J. Reddy. After the game ice-cream and cake were served to all present.

What used to be the most troublesome and laborious thing in connection with serving refreshments has been done away with, by the refreshments wagon which the Deaf-Mutes' Union League had made, and was used on this occasion for the first time.

All were served in quick time, therefore saving time which the guests devoted to social intercourse.

It was after midnight when lights were turned off, and all departed for home.

The glory for the enjoyable evening is due in great degree to the Entertainment Committee, Messrs. Wm. Krieger, A. Hynes and A. Eisenberg.

The Patriotic Ball to be given by the Allied War Saving Societies of the Deaf, on December 14th, 1918, promises to be a record breaker in point of attendance. Three thousand and five hundred tickets are out. Each society is endeavoring to outdo the other societies in selling tickets, and the hearing friends of the deaf, as expected, are taking an interest in its success.

The three-thousand mark has been passed in the sale of Thrift and War Saving Stamps by the deaf representative, Mr. Samuel Frankenheim, who has disposed most to members of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League. If the other societies, comprising the War Saving Societies of the Deaf, organized last May, have worked for the success of the object in aiding the Government as they promised to do, the goal of $10,000 by December 31st, 1918, will be reached, if not surpassed.

A sub-committee has been appointed to arrange a program, which will surely be interesting to all who attend.

The Athletic Committee of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League, were present at the Whist Party last Saturday evening, and took particular pains in showing the two loving cups that are to be presented to the dancers—lady and gentleman—at the affair, which is to be given under their management on Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, November 27th, 1918.

Mr. Frank Nimmo, the chairman, even went so far as to make a speech. The proceeds of the affair will be devoted to equip the basketball team, therefore all athletic youngsters as well as their admirers should attend.

The V. B. G. A. girls are busy rehearsing their play, called "Chop Suey," which is to be given in St. Ann's Church Guild Room, on November 16th. The Misses Sherman are at the helm, which is a guarantee of a highly successful dramatic presentation.

Monae Lesser is said to be seriously sick, at the home of his father in this city. The Union League members were notified of his illness and many have promised to call and cheer him in his lonely hours.

Seligman Gerson spent the summer at Rockaway Park, L. I., from June 17th to September 24th. He is now back at his home on Washington Heights.

In the Liberty Loan Parade last Saturday, Misses Margaret and Eleanor Sherman marched with the Women's Land Army of America section.

A Halloween Festival will be given at St. Ann's Church, in the Guild Room, on Saturday, October 26th.

S. W. J. D. NEWS

Last month, while the plans for the current season of activities at the S. W. J. D. were being made, it became evident that large quarters would be necessary for at least a number of the events, due to their importance and the attendance expected. Accordingly, the Society leased the Harlem Casino, Lenox Avenue and 116th Street, for every second and fourth Sunday, from October to March, 1919. This is one feature of the projected extension of the S. W. J. D. work.

The first affair at the Harlem Casino was the monster basketball game and dance, held there last Sunday, October 13th, from 1 to 6 P. M. No sooner did the doors open than the hall began to fill with S. W. J. D. members and their friends. It soon became manifest that the Committee on Activities was right in its judgment of the

OHIO.

[News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 998 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.]

October 12, 1918.—The spirit of our co-laborer and friend, Albert Henry Schory, passed away to its Maker, Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. Sunday noon his condition gave hopes that he would be spared to us, but that night a change came on for the worse.

Early Tuesday morning, Dr. Baldwin was called in for consultation with the attending physician, and they held out no hopes, and at the above hour the grim reaper claimed him as his own. The patient was conscious up to within an hour before the end came. He quietly passed away. His wife, son Albert, and Miss Maize, were at his bedside, when the final summons came.

The sad news soon reached the school and universal sorrow was expressed. The deceased was born in Minerva, Ohio, of Swiss parents, who had emigrated to this country from Switzerland. He lost his hearing in early infancy. He also had a deaf sister, who was a pupil of the school in 1867, and died there in March that year, during the typhoid epidemic prevailing among the pupils. He entered the school as a pupil with the opening of the new building, now main, in the Fall of 1868. As a pupil, he was bright and apt in his studies, graduating in June, 1876. That fall he entered Gallaudet College, from which he graduated in 1881, with the degree B. A. In October of that year he received a call from the then superintendent of the school, Mr. Charles S. Perry, to become a teacher, and followed the work till his last sickness came on, two days after the opening of this term. He was not feeling well at the close of school on Friday, but thought his ailment was of a minor character and he would be back on Monday, but a mysterious Providence willed otherwise. Thus for thirty-seven years, he labored to enlighten the minds of those afflicted with the loss of hearing and speech like himself, and did it conscientiously and earnestly. As a teacher he was alert, sincere, and enthusiastic in whatever instruction he gave his pupils—thus giving them to understand that they must be the same if they wished to surmount their difficulties of their education.

Nor were these traits wanting outside of the school. He was interested in the deaf in general, and their societies. He was an active member of the Ohio Alumni Association, Gallaudet Alumni Association, N. A. D., member of the Board of Managers of the O to Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf, and was chairman of its Executive Committee, upon which devolved much of its management.

Much of the success which the Home has attained is due to his labors. He was also a member of the local Division of the N. E. S. D., the Columbus Advance Society, and was a trustee of some of the pupils' societies. A couple of years ago he became lay-reader of the deaf connected with Trinity Church of this City. He has been treasurer of the Alumni Association since its 10th reunion, and before that held several offices in the same organization. But his labors are now over, and all he did was for the betterment of mankind. He lived not unto himself, but for the good of others. Well done, thou faithful servant, thy work shall long be remembered.

The funeral services were to have been held at the school Friday morning, but owing to the prevalence of the Spanish Influenza, a state and city quarantine order necessitated it be held at the residence of the deceased.

The evening previous many of the deaf, who could not attend the services, called to take a last look on their friend. Except for death's pallor the countenance of the deceased looked natural, as if in a restful slumber, as he lay on the open couch, amid many floral tributes friends had contributed to attest their sorrow and esteem.

Among them were a large wreath of magnolia leaves studded with yellow rose buds, "with much sympathy," from Mr. and Mrs. James M. Park, of Santa Barbara, Cal., stood at the head of the couch.

On the floor at the open side a large pillow of roses with a white back ground, upon which "Dad" is inserted, from the boys, Albert and Howard.

Another pillow of roses and white flowers from the Toledo Frats had "Albert" in its center. From All Saints' Mission, a sheaf of roses and smilax; from Canton School for Deaf and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Toomey, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Monnin and son, a basket of pink and white roses and smilax; Columbus Div. F. S. D., a sheaf of roses and ferns; from friends of the school, sheaf of ferns, smilax and ferns dotted with roses; Clonian Society, sheaf of ferns and chrysanthemums; Fred Blackford a sheaf of ferns and chrysanthemums; a wreath of laurel leaves and smilax studded with roses, from teachers of the school and Miss Maize; and these combined sent a large wreath of ferns, smilax and chrysanthemums: Mr. McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Zorn, Mr. and Mrs. Greener, Miss Greener, Misses Agnes and Bessie Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. Beckert, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis of Detroit, Miss C. M. Feasley, Mr. and Mrs. George Clum, Miss Lamson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles.

A sheaf of ferns and chrysanthemums from the W. C. T. U. Pupils of the school also contributed a sheaf of roses and ferns.

Rev. B. R. Allabough came down from Cleveland and conducted the services according to the rites of the church and also eulogized the deceased. Rev. C. W. Charles gave a sketch of the life of the deceased. Most of the teachers and a large number of the city deaf were present. The pallbearers were: Dr. Patterson, Rev. C. W. Charles, Mr. James Stewart, one of the teachers of the school, and Messrs. Ernest Zell, Wm H. Zorn and A. B. Greener. The remains were interred in Greenlawn Cemetery. Mr. Louis J. Bacheberle, of Cincinnati, attended the funeral service. He had come up to attend the Board of Managers, of which he is a member, meeting. Gethse and Lum, sheaf of ferns dotted with purple asters and pink chrysanthemums.

A coincidence of Mr. Schory's death is that it occurred on the first anniversary of Mrs. R. P. McGregor's, and on the evening of the day she was buried, the Ladies' Aid Society, which she assisted to organize and retained her membership therein to the day of her death, held its monthly meeting. The yearly meeting of the Board of Managers of the Home followed in the evening of the day Mr. Schory was laid to rest.

According to the Toledo Times of the 8th of October, the Toledo Division of the N. E. S. D. subscribed $200. It also claims to have subscribed $1500 worth of the third bond call.

CANTON NOTES

Mr. Collins Sawhill held a service in St. Paul's Church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, September 22d. It was well attended. Mrs. Chamberlain, of Minerva, and Mrs. John Lynn, of Columbus, attended it. They staid over night with Mr. and Mrs. Stansbury. The next day they returned to Minerva. Mrs. Lynn spent two weeks with Mrs. Chamberlain. The two were old schoolmates. Mrs. Lynn expected to go to Cleveland about September 28th, to visit her daughter. The Stark County fair was held September 25, 26, 27 and 28. In spite of the war, it was well attended for four days and three nights. Patriotic Day was observed Friday, and one of the features of the day was the Liberty Pageant staged by the Stark County War Savings Committee.

Mrs. Monnin, Mrs. Roy Brown and Mrs. Crowley attended the fair. They met Mrs. Steve Hester and her father and mother. She said she was going to move to East Liverpool from Sebring this week, where Mr. Hester has a good position in the pottery factory.

John Probert has been working in the Pennsylvania Laundry for over a year and gets good wages. He lives with his sister. Their brother is in camp at Louisville, Kentucky.

Mrs. William Toomey and babe returned to their home from Virginia, Sept. 23d, after spending the summer with her parents in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Reichard, of Niles, Ohio, motored to Alliance last summer to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Durian. They brought them in an auto to Canton to visit Mr. and Mrs. Monnin.

Mr. and Mrs. Reichard motored to Massillon, to the Iusane Asylum to see Mr. Frank Craft, but they were told that she had gone to her home in Warren, Ohio.

"C."

Mr. David Friedman, who for twelve years served Cleveland as cement tester and chemist faithfully and well, has resigned, and is now with the J. L. and H. Stadler Fertilizer and Lending Company as chemist, where he will be better remunerated than the city did. It is said the city desires his return, as no suitable man can be obtained now. The better way would have been to better compensate him when she had him in her grasp.

Mrs. Bert Wortman, of Cincinnati, after a couple of weeks' visit to her sister, Mrs. Wark, of this city, left for her home this week.

Mr. Ruben Bice, of Dayton, Ohio, died last week. He left the school back in the eighties.

The Board of Managers of the Home for the Deaf held its annual meeting last evening.

Columbus in a five days' campaign, ending last Saturday evening, went over the top by a margin of a million and seven hundred thousand. Its quota was $13,000,000, and by the 19th inst. will have over $18,000,000, it is expected. The school, officers, teachers and employees, will be one hundred per cent. They paid up most of them Saturday, as it was pay day, and made Clerk Stevens, who was had charge of the receiving, cast a big smile.

It is reported that Norbert Pilliod, a Junior in Gallaudet, will not be there this year, as he is assisting his father to help win the war.

The school has been quarantined on account of that "Fluzy." Sharon B. Fisher, a former pupil of the Mt. Airy School, and later here, was married September 25th, to Miss Daisy Rankin, of Gloucester, Ohio, also a former pupil here, at the bride's home. They will live at 206 First Street, Niagara Falls, N. Y., after an extensive wedding trip.

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James S. Reldner, 1388 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Owing to the influenza epidemic there have been no meetings or services of the deaf here for almost two weeks. The Frat's monthly meeting, on October 4th, was of course not permitted to be held, but the Treasurer was on hand to receive the dues from each member on the first floor of the Fraternity building. All Souls' Church for the Deaf was closed on October 6th and 13th. The closing ban is general throughout the city. Our deaf should watch the daily papers for an announcement by the Director of Health of the time when meetings and services may be resumed.

At Gloucester, N. J., on October 7th, Mrs. Fannie Schuster (nee Harper), wife of Mr. Frank A. Schuster, died of influenza. The funeral took place on Thursday morning, 10th, from the husband's residence, 405 Hudson Street, High Mass being held at St. Mary's Church. The deceased was a former student of the old Broad and Pine Streets School, as was also her husband. The husband and two children survive her.

Among those reported ill more recently are Mr. Joseph Flaschen-trager, Mr. Hugh Cusack, Mr. Hoffman and Mr. R. E. Underwood. A few more than these are said to have been ill, but we have not learned their names. All are said to be progressing towards recovery.

Mr. Olof Hanson, who once resided here for a couple of years, and then went West and last resided at Omaha, Neb., has come back to Philadelphia to accept a position in the photo-engraving department of the North American, one of the city's most popular newspapers. Two other deaf persons, Mr. Ross V. Mohr and Mr. Charles Partington, are employed in the same department.

Miss Elizabeth Loughridge, of Catasauqua, Pa., has been in the city for some time to have her eyes treated, stopped with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Delp in East Lansdowne.

Mrs. Morris Garber, of Olyphant, Pa., left for home on October 6th, after spending a month hereabouts. She came here to see the wedding of her daughter.

KANSAS CITY, MO.

Kansas City proudly put up its local Division, No. 31's, claim to have the tallest Frat in the world. Henry Johnson, lately "goated in," is twenty-one years old and is six feet and three inches tall, and is still growing.

Five new Frats admitted for next month, as approved by local Division, and four more applicants coming in. For marriages in a single month in this city, and so many weddings from all parts of Missouri State, which spells prosperity this year.

Professor Carrell writes he is doing well in Oklahoma, and declares he will be back here next summer when school closes. Kansas City wishes him to know he's always welcome, as she found him to be the right kind of a man to help us push the good cause of the Deaf here.

Luther Taylor, who has been working at Akron this summer, is back at Olathe, and brought with him an assistant supervisor.

Mr. Rawlings, who has been in Akron for a long time, desires to stay in this city, and visit his friends.

Miss Lorraine Sawtell's vacation announcement of her engagement to Mr. E. Foltz, of Mississippi. The Frats wish to convey congratulations to the Mississippian through this paper.

A masquerade, October 26th, probably at St. Grace, so announced Wys, chairman of the Frat parties. It has been quite a time since the city had a good party. A new record crowd is expected.

Rev. Michaels preached to a large crowd last Sunday. He's making many friends here.

Rev. Dr. Cloud was here Sunday last, and a large crowd turned out to see his lecture. He is known here as a learned lecturer for the deaf.

The Missouri Record's first issue, at the opening of the school, shows some "pep" in it. Right here every body knows Missouri School is turning out every thing first class, as record proves. And Missouri's boys and girls are healthy, cheerful, willing workers, home loving and buying homes as fast as their dollars come in.

DETROIT.

News items of interest to the deaf of Michigan may be addressed to Mrs. C. C. Colby, 715 E. Jefferson Avenue, Detroit. Subscriptions will be received and forwarded to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild, a lecture was given by Mr. John Berry, of Mt. Clemens, Saturday evening, October 5th, at the Parish House. About eighty deaf people, mostly from the Lutheran and Catholic churches, went to hear him. His subject was "Michael Strogoff." It was a hair-standing story from the start. It tells how Gen. Kioff, the chief of police, reported trouble in Siberia; how Czar sent Michael Strogoff, the Courier, with a message to his brother in Siberia; Ivan Ogareff, the Traitor followed him; how Michael met Nadia, a pretty maid, and they became firm friends, were captured as prisoners of war; meeting of two reporters who wanted to gather news in Siberia; escape of Michael and Nadia, how Nadia was insulted and Michael's eyes burnt; burial of Nicholas and his dog. Irkutsk was reached, Ivan Ogareff, the traitor, was shot to death; the message was delivered; Czar's brother and his people were saved; Michael and Nadia were married.

Mr. Berry is a lay-reader for the Lutheran Church (deaf) and is a fine sign-maker. At the conclusion of his lecture, a bouquet of carnations was presented to him. He is well beloved by the deaf of this city and nearby.

The business meeting of the Detroit Association of the Deaf was held at the hall on the fourth floor at 176-178 Jefferson Avenue, East, corner Woodward, Sunday evening, October 6th, with Thomas Kenney, president. Almost every member was present—104 members.

Before the opening of the meeting, the boys laid aside their smokes, arose and saluted the flag, which is hanging over the portrait of our president of the United States.

Ben Beaver was chosen Treasurer pro tem., in place of Treasurer Furman, who was absent, and Wm. Behrendt, sub-Sergeant. Several ladies and the reporter were invited to witness the business transactions which they considered one of the finest meetings in Detroit. They were proud of the boys. What would happen to the boys if they did not have the club?

The club is in good condition, and has $245.90 in the treasury. Five new members were admitted, and they made their bow by shaking hands with every member present. One of the new members was John Crittenden, brother of Mrs. John Berry, of Mt. Clemens.

The club agreed to have a dancing party once in a while on Saturday evening, when it is not being reserved.

The charges are as follows: Fifteen cents admission to each non-member; ten cents to each member, and free of charge to the ladies.

It agreed to give fifty dollars to Liberty loan; to buy two more dozens of chairs; and during the balance of year it offers to new member to join the Club at a fee of one dollar. A good chance for you, boys, to join the club and have warm rooms during winter. W. Mosby, vice-president of the Club, was the hero of the meeting. Before the closing of the meeting, the president reported that something had happened, the guilty person being the vice-president.

The president ordered one of the members to produce a letter and package as proofs.

Mr. Mosby stood about five feet and half and weighed around one hundred and fifty pounds, but he did not seek redress of his righteously grievance. His nose grew white, his lips became deeply blue, when he opened the letter that revealed the package contained a set of six hammered silver knives and forks, given him by boy friends of the club.

The lady visitors and boys burst into laughter. Mr. Mosby is a bright young Illinois man, ambitious to get along in the world, so he naturally wanted mechanics at the Ford Motor Co., as the shortest road to wealth. He has prospered and married a charming Illinois maid—Miss Collins. Congratulations.

H. B. Waters conducted services at the chapel of St. John's Sunday morning, October 6th. Genesis 12, verses 1 to 9, were read, after which Rion Hoel told how God had called Abram, seventy five years old, to go out of his home country, Haran, and to build an altar in the strange land of Canaan. Like God had sent Laurent Clerc to America to help Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, who established the American School for the Deaf.

Henry Germer, of Flint, was introduced to give a talk. He stated that the Flint deaf have a Bible Class, which meets every Sunday, and helps the deaf greatly. He closed the services with a prayer. The members of the Epiphatha Mission and Guild are requested to meet at the chapel of St. John's, Sunday morning, October 20th.

Mrs. Wm. Rheiner entertained several of her lady friends to a five o'clock dinner at her cozy home, 990 Bellevue Avenue, Tuesday evening, October 1st, after which they enjoyed card playing. Mrs. Rheiner is a fine entertainer. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rheiner are products of the Flint School. Mr. Rheiner is employed for his brother-in-law, Mr. Finck, as an inspector at the Finck Overall Factory. This company subscribed thirty-five thousand dollars to the Liberty Loan.

You are missing a wholesome lecture in Detroit, if you are not patronizing the local N. A. D. Branch at the D. A. D. Club rooms October 26th, when Rev. John Keiser, of New York, will deliver a story of the trenches.

George Umber, formerly of Traverse City, but now employed in Flint, at the Chevrolet Auto Co., was at the Parish House, Saturday evening, October 5th, meeting old and new acquaintances.

Hyman Hurwitz, a newsboy, who met with an accident, breaking his right leg last summer, is around again. He has put in a suit against the careless auto driver.

E. M. Jacobs has invented another patent on something, but he has to wait until the war is over, for the government needs the steel and iron, etc. The first patent he invented, and sent to Washington some time ago, was rejected.

Mrs. Oscar Hoffman, of Monroe, Mich., sister of Clifford Goupill, was in Detroit for shopping Saturday, and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schnabelins over Sunday, October 6th.

It gives one a strange feeling to see Detroit deaf congregating in a crowd to see Cadillac Square and the new Liberty Statue—for we have not been accustomed to seeing such a crowd of deaf on the street. The Statue of Liberty that is erected in Cadillac Square, it is said, will be duplicated in bronze and on the front of its base placed a tablet to the sons who have died to make the liberty it represents a reality.

Mr. and Mrs. Heymanson, who have a fine pet dog, who lives on fine foods and has warm, wool blankets to sleep on. To celebrate the dog's second birthday anniversary, they gave him a couple of long sticks of candy. The dog can play many tricks and can understand every thing you say to him.

Mrs. John Voisine, of Kalamazoo, has stored all her goods in an upper room of her home and rented the rest to a young couple for the winter. Mrs. Voisine left Kalamazoo, October 4th, to join her husband, who is employed at the Shipyards at Buffalo, N. Y., where he has been for the past month. He likes his work first rate. Kalamazoo deaf will miss them during the winter months and expect them back on Summer Street by summer.

Henry Onisk, a promising young man, is expected to go to Ohio, the first part of November, in hopes of finding a better job.

There are more than forty deaf living in Kalamazoo, Mich., though only two of them are members of the N. A. D.—Daniel Teller and Moses Graft. Certainly it would be great if they only would roll up their sleeves to wheel the N. A. D. over the top by forming a Branch.

The clocks of the nation will be set back one hour October 27th.

An ordinance will be introduced in the common council directing that Detroit time remain unchanged.

MRS. C. C. C.

Miss Margaret Schwab, a former pupil at the New York Institution, is engaged to be married to a hearing gentleman of Binghamton, N. Y. The wedding will occur some time in January, 1919.

Much encouragement is found by the Cologne Gazette in a statement that the German general staff correctly predicted how many Americans would arrive at a given date. "It shows how carefully our staff works out its calculations and avoids surprises." One is reminded of the Irish pilot who was boasting that he knew every rock in the channel, when the boat struck. "And, be-jabers," he added, "that's wan iv them."

A tree known as the shea or butter tree, is beginning to attract commercial attention. It supplies not only nuts, but also butter that may become an article of commercial importance. It is already exported to Europe, where makers of artificial butter find use for it. Almost two-thirds of the nut is vegetable butter.

FANWOOD.

A letter from a friend of Cadet Lieutenant Samuel Jampolski, who was a former pupil here, now at Kendall School for the Deaf, Washington, D. C., to be prepared to enter Gallaudet College next year. In the letter was written about our three boys, two of which graduated last June, and the other one is Mr. John N. Funk, of '17. One of the former and the latter were seen busy kicking the "hide" to get in the line ups.

Columbus Day exercises were held in chapel on Friday afternoon. The receiving of the colors, with the band playing the American anthem, opened the exercises. Principal Gardner gave some remarks about the discovery of America. Dr. Fox called on some of the pupils and they gave good talks on Columbus. The Professors were invited to say something also. Our celebrated story-teller in the sign language, Prof. William G. Jones, gave a fine sketch representing himself as Columbus, at the age of about five hundred and fifty years, and looking back to the time when he discovered America and how we became one of the greatest nations in the world. The choir rendered "America" in signs and the colors were dismissed. The band played, "Oh! How I hate to get up in the morning," while the pupils marched out of the chapel.

There was a big fuss in the carpenter shop last week. While Cadet Joseph Landberg was improving the replica of the Capitol at Washington, Cadet Sergeant Alfred Allen was fooling around with a two-foot aeroplane made by himself, and it flew over the Capitol. Joe got mad and ran for a machine gun, which was only a stick, and attacked the aeroplane to save the Capitol. Bravo!

Some of the Cadet Officers witnessed at the big Parade, headed by our President Wilson, on Columbus Day, on Fifth Avenue. They saw Brigadier General Dyer, who was marching slightly behind President Wilson. He attended our Centennial Anniversary last May and gave some remarks on militarism.

While having his hair cut, Cadet Edward Morgan rose and saluted, when the band was playing "Star Spangled Banner." He is a partially deaf and blind boy.

Miss Sibelle de F. King, a teacher here for many years, retired on a pension, left New York for North Carolina on Friday last.

Of all the pupils here, Cadet Albert Sumner has most brothers in Uncle Sam's service. There are four who are helping to drive out autocracy.

The annual meeting of the Fanwood Literary Association was held last Saturday evening, with Counselor Isaac B. Gardner presiding. The minutes of last year's report were read by the newly elected Secretary. An election for new officers took place, and Cadet Captain Aurelio Ruggerio was appointed chairman of the ballot tellers, by the President of the Association. The following are the results of the election for the year 1918-19:

Counselor, Isaac B. Gardner; President, Thomas F. Fox, M.D., Litt. D.; First Vice-President, Allen G. Cattancher; Second Vice-President, Jacob Seltzer; Secretary, Bessie Frey; Treasurer, Prudence E. Burehard; Directors: William G. Jones, M.A., Myra L. Barrager, Harriett C. Hall, Amelia E. Berry, Edward S. Burdick, Elwood A. Stevenson, and F. G. S. Smith.

Over twenty aeroplanes flew in sight of the Institution last Saturday. It was exciting to see how high and higher they flew. Circulants of the Fourth Liberty Loan were thrown out, and we were waiting long enough before some did land on our grounds.

After the show at the Costello Theatre last Saturday afternoon it began to rain, and the cadets, who were returning to the Institution, were taken in an auto, owned by Cadet Nathan Kahn's aunt.

The new pupils of the High Class have been quite busy with Algebra. Some say that it upsets their minds, while others say that it is a pleasure to work it. Soon all will agree that algebra is easy.

Lillian Downie was escorted by her father to see President Wilson in the parade.

Connie Pizzuto attended her sister's birthday party last Saturday. She reports having a lovely time and came home with a lot to tell her friends.

The band and three cadet companies were formed in the letters of "N. Y. L. D." last Sunday, before the drill, and Mr. Paul Spanner, the Institution's photographer and supervisor, took pictures of them. Messrs. Paul Spanner and Frank Lux suggested it. After that the battalion was quickly formed and the usual drill ceremonies were performed before a large crowd. Colonel Gardner and Major Van Tassel reviewed.

Sophie Sadowitz paid a visit to her family in Brooklyn last Saturday. She was luckily invited to ride back to school in a pupil's brother's auto. She had the pleasure of seeing places through which she never passed before.

Principal Gardner occupied the chapel platform Sunday morning, and gave us a fine talk on the present situation of peace terms. Prof. Burdick took the afternoon session, and gave a talk on the different organizations that are helping to win the war.

Field Day will be held this Saturday afternoon, 1.30 P.M., on the lawn in front of the Institution. Ribbons will be awarded to winners of each event. All are welcome to see the events. Miss Mathews, Physical Director, aided by Assistant Physical Director Frank Lux, has charge of the affair, and promises it will be a success. Results will be printed next week. Eyes open, readers!

Sunday evening was spent in chapel listening to some of the pupils giving interesting stories with moral lessons.

Miss Effie Jordan, of Little Rock, Ark., visited Principal and Mrs. Gardner on Sunday evening. She goes to France soon as a Red Cross Nurse. Miss Marsh, of this city, who is attending Smith College, was also the guest of Mrs. Gardner on Sunday. Miss Marsh is a classmate of Miss Estelle Gardner, the daughter of Principal and Mrs. Gardner. The chief entertainers of the evening were the members of the Protean Orchestra, which is composed of four officers, namely, Cadet Lieutenant Allen G. Cattancher, Cadet Assistant Band Leader John J. Uhl, Cadet Band Corporal Jacob Seltzer and Harry Newman. The selections rendered were the latest dance music and marches.

Cadet Leo Menloff has purchased three hundred dollars worth of War Savings Stamps since the sale started. He sees victory for America and defeat for the Huns.

The Junior Fanwood Athletic Association has been organized with the following officers: President, Al Jaffre; Vice-President, Samuel Fleischer; Secretary, Alfred Ederheimer; Treasurer, Joseph Krasner.

Mr. Frank Lux is manager of this Association.

JACK SELTZER.

Duluth, Minn.

To

JOSEPH FILIATRAULT, PRESIDENT
ZENITH BRANCH, N. A. D.

From his friends,

October 3d, 1918.

The above inscription, handsomely engraved, was on a large silver loving cup presented to Mr. Joseph Filiatrault on his birthday.

Mr. Filiatrault, a staunch old bachelor, had borrowed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cooke Howard for the occasion and had enlisted the help of Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Ingval Dahl, Mrs. Carl Magnusson and Mrs. Peter Scott.

Forty-two of his deaf friends gathered to help him celebrate the occasion. After ample justice had been done to the excellent dinner provided, the presentation was made, and his friends drank to his long life and happiness. To make a thoroughly good job of it, as Mr. Filiatrault had arranged, refreshments were served again before the party broke up about midnight.

The Effect of the War on Postal Savings at New York.

Report has been received from the New York Post Office covering the month of September, which shows that the increase in Postal Savings deposits previously noted still continues.

Though it might be expected that the prevailing high cost of living would leave little for saving and that the campaign to sell Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps would absorb all surplus money of New York wage earners and business people, the fact is that the Postal Savings deposits in Manhattan and the Bronx increased during the month of September $348,240.

The balance on deposits in Manhattan and the Bronx now exceeds $34,000,000, and is continually growing.

The aim of the New York Post Office is to meet the requirements of the public in every way practicable. With this view, every carrier of the New York office has been instructed that there are nearly fifty stations distributed throughout Manhattan and the Bronx, and they are easily accessible to every part of the city.

The window for the reception and withdrawal of money are open from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. and every effort is made to facilitate the business of the depositors.

To meet the requirements of our English speaking patrons, pamphlets are provided giving Postal Savings information in over twenty different languages, and ordinarily interpreters are available at the different stations to lend assistance where necessary.

The Government now permits deposits up to $2500, and pays interest at the rate of 2%. Though this rate is lower than can be obtained from other banks, the absolute safety of the Postal Savings Bank, with the faith and strength of the Federal Government behind it, appeal to those who place "safety" first.

LOS ANGELES.

No city in the United States has more brilliant illuminated streets than Los Angeles. During the evening until late at night, Broadway for its entire length is in a blaze of light and the electric display is certainly beautiful. Ornamental iron posts upon which are set six handsome globes are placed at frequent intervals throughout the street, and when the power is turned on the darkest night is made as light as day. Spring and Main and Hill and Fifth Streets are fitted out in a similar way, and then it cannot be said of Los Angeles that we "love darkness rather than light."

Deaf-mutes coming to Los Angeles to make this their home should be masters of a good trade, well-supplied with funds, otherwise they will find it very difficult to get along. Our city is growing rapidly, but in many ways is greatly overdone, so it is not always easy to find employment.

As a compliment to Bros. Fish and Phelps, who represented the N. F. S. D. Convention last July, the local division No. 53, had a stag party on the evening of the 10th inst. Funny and laughable talks, and stories of all sorts and good speeches were the features of the evening, after which the frat partook of the good things on the table and did ample justice to them. The evening was most enjoyable.

Mr. Maldonado came from San Francisco and spent Sunday and Labor Day with us, and then returned home in time to take up his duties of business. We had the pleasure of meeting him. We hope he has taken with him a very favorable opinion of us and our city and climate.

There are two latest additions to the local silent community—Mr. L. Johnson, hailing from Illinois, and Miss Farliser from New York. Mr. Johnson is employed by the U. S. Government in ship building at San Pedro. Miss Farliser has settled down with her folks permanently at Burbank.

Quite a large number of the deaf generally celebrated Labor Day by spending the day at various beaches, and returned home much pleased with the day's outing. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, accompanied by the writer and his wife and daughter, spent Sunday and Labor Day at Venice.

We desire to express our appreciation of kindness showed toward Messrs. Fisk and Phelps by our old friend, Mr. Edward Leff, during their visit in New York City. They had a very pleasant time with the Yankee, whose kindness will live here until he was compelled to return to New York, but we hope he will remove here in the future.

The famous Barnum and Bailey Circus appeared and remained here three days, after three years' absence. Several of the deaf have witnessed it, and said that the circus was not the same as it used to be in the former days. They did not care for anything but the clowns—as their funny performances made the deaf laugh so hard.

We had another rainfall a few days ago, but it was not heavy enough to make it very bad under foot. However, the rain cooled things off. Joseph Sonneborn passed away after a lingering illness. He was a quiet and dignified gentleman and much esteemed by the deaf here. He leaves a widow, besides his brother and family. Our most sincere and heartfelt sympathy goes to Mrs. Sonneborn.

Another two additions to the deaf here are Misses Annie and Nellie Hanlon. They are visiting in our beautiful city. Being under climatic influence, they are seriously considering returning home to New York.

We certainly appreciate our old friend, Mr. Mathers' real and kind thoughtfulness of us, because he had done the best he could to help us win our 1921 convention, while in Philadelphia. Moreover, we congratulate him on being the fifth Vice-President of the N. F. S. D. He used to reside here until he moved to Salt Lake City, where he secured a better paying position.

Mr. Levi Larson, who is another addition to the deaf, came from Utah by motorcycle recently. He was educated at the Minnesota School for the Deaf. He started with the hope of discovering a fortune for himself, and finally decided to make this his permanent home. He is a skilful mechanic by trade.

On the way from New York to where they will spend the winter, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell stopped off here and met their old acquaintances at the Frat Club. Mr. Campbell is a graduate of Gallaudet College.

Here was another silent visitor, by the name of Mr. Blanchard, who graduated from Gallaudet College. He could have spent several weeks longer, but for his limited pass. He has only been in Los Angeles. Mr. Blanchard said he had no idea how beautiful our city and climate were.

The marriage of Miss Ida Miller to Mr. Arthur Samuelson was a complete surprise to the local deaf. They shipped out of town to Riverside, where they were married last week.

By the first of December, all the breweries in the country are to be "shut down" by the U. S. government, one of them being here throws Mr. Burson out of work. We hope he will not find it difficult to obtain another position, as he has two trades or so already. Then he will be able to join the N. F. S. D. anyway.

According to Mr. Doane's statement, Mrs. Howson, the wife of Mr. Howson, who is teaching at the Berkeley School for the Deaf, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Norton at Ventura. Before Mrs. Howson returns north, we hope she will be able to step in and see us for a short time.

Mr. George Smith, the only deaf butcher along the coast, is back from Arizona, where he could hardly stand the heat. That is the reason why he is working in the Wilson packing house now, where the writer is employed.

Mr. McGowan has returned from his vacation, spent in the Sierra Madre Mountains, his well bronzed face being in evidence.

Mr. Leslie Ross has given up his abode in San Francisco and moved here to be a permanent Angeleno. His folks have moved to Riverside to live, only sixty miles south from here.

News from Akron, Ohio, to the effect that Mr. William Hoy and Mr. Luther Taylor, whom we met here long ago, are now employed by the Goodyear Tire Co. We are quite surprised at this.

The names of the local deaf who own and drive automobiles are as follows: Mr. Phelps, Mr. Norton, Mr. Gilmore, Mr. Brooks, Mr. Heitschman, Mr. Briscoe, Mr. Roberts, Mrs. Sonneborn, Mr. Dudley and Mr. Moses. Messrs. Cool, Doane and Hulten are thinking of following suit soon.

Last Saturday evening, the Literary Auxiliary entertained with a well-arranged program a large crowd of the deaf. Mrs. Hammond delivered a fine song, called "My Country, America," by signs. Messrs. Roy and Myers and Dyson, messrs. the crowd with an excellent dialogue, called "A Rose and a Thorn." Mr. Fisk gave a very interesting story of his itinerary to the East. Mr. Phelps is a real practical joker and always amuses us with his jokes. Mr. Blanchard, being our visitor, made quite impressive remarks.

WANTED

deaf-mutes who are prudent enough to foresee future needs and can face the problem squarely!

This war is waking us all up to many neglected duties—not the least of which is to insure our lives.

Do you know that the oldest Company in America issues the best policy contract ever offered to the deaf, on terms so liberal it will fairly astonish you? It will cost nothing to find out.

More than 10 per cent of insurance applied for is declined, because men wait too long. The moral is obvious: DO IT NOW while you are able!

National Association of the Deaf.

Organized, August 21, 1880.

Incorporated, Feb. 23, 1900.

An Organization for the Welfare of all the Deaf.

OBJECTS

To educate the public as to the Deaf; To advance the intellectual, professional and industrial status of the Deaf; To aid in the establishment of Employment Bureaus for the Deaf in the State and National Departments of Labor; To oppose the unjust application of liability laws in the case of Deaf workers; To combat unjust discrimination against the Deaf in the Civil Service or other lines of employment; To co-operate in the improvement, development and extension of educational facilities for deaf children; To encourage the use of the most approved and successful methods of instruction in schools for the Deaf, the adaptation of such methods to the needs of individual pupils, and to oppose the indiscriminate application of any single method to all; To seek the enactment of stringent laws for the suppression of the impostor evil—hearing persons posing as Deaf-Mutes; To raise an endowment fund—the income of which is to be devoted to furthering the objects of the Association; To erect a national memorial to Charles Michael De l'Epee—the universal benefactor of the Deaf.

MEMBERSHIP

Regular Members: Deaf Citizens of the United States; Associate Members: Deaf persons not citizens of the United States and Hearing Persons interested in the welfare of the Deaf.

FEES AND DUES

Initiation Fee, $1.00; Annual dues, 50 Cents. Life membership, $25 paid into the Endowment Fund at one time. All Official Publications free to members. Official Organ: THE N. A. D. Every deaf citizen and all others interested in the advancement of the Deaf along educational, and industrial lines are urged to join the Association, and co-operate financially and otherwise in promoting its objects.

Life memberships, donations and bequests towards the increase of the Endowment fund are especially needed and earnestly solicited to the end that permanent headquarters, in charge of salaried experts, may be maintained for the more efficient and vigorous prosecution of the work of the Association.
